Dear Mrs Parlow

Thanks you for your letter. We will meet you as you suggest outside my office at 4.15 & go on to Lady Simon. —

I am here with my new Colleague on the War

Bath and hope to come back with lots of news about my agements.
My proposals for Ireland are

I am still very much concerned about Kathleen.
Grau has notified our Solicitors that it is not his intention to proceed with his action!

I am sure a letter from you to him would make matters straight; and in Kathleen's interest we should absolutely necessary. We are waiting to speak more money on her, an education and nothing, and it remains with her to insist on Spain that he reduces his unreasonable terms & for as Great Britain Ireland & the Colonies are concern He is not doing anything: I am sure will not. His proposal even offering him a certain sum if he will do something in the matter: but it is clearly in your hands, notwithstanding your advice; as, in this country a contract has to be Something for Something otherwise it becomes void.

Do impress this seriously on Grace. Moreover your consent and approval are necessary in everything as Kathleen is a minor. Her whole interests are yours, ~~+~~ and also ours: and we want to do big things for her. but it will even now

Greg should be brought to his bearings. —

I leave the matter in your hands and feel sure you will write him very seriously and let us have a copy of his letter; and trouble as to
